Asheville Country Day School
Volume 14

The road to the city of Emeralds is paved with yellow brick, so you cannot miss it.
It is a long journey that is sometimes pleasant and sometimes dark and terrible.
Keep your courage up, and when you get to the Emerald City, ask the Great Oz for help, for he is the only one who can help you.

Dedication: Mrs. Irby Stephens

Scarecrow:

I am only a Scarecrow, stuffed with straw. Therefore I have no brains, and I come to you praying that you will put brains into my head instead of straw so that I may become a man.

Mrs. Stephens: Why do you ask me to do this?

Scarecrow:

Because you have taught the students of Asheville Country Day (and I understand their heads are stuffed with straw) for many years, and you have given them wisdom and good hearts.

Mrs. Stephens: Who told you so?

Scarecrow:

Many of them--sometimes six of the same family--some very young, some old--some sad, some gay--some fat, some thin--some foolish, some wise. You are written in their hearts.

Now that YOU ARE HERE. . . . . .

You didn't ask to be born. Nor has anyone else from the earliest caveman to the newest baby. But down through the ages countless millions of people have lived, worked, and died on this planet. Many have shared their talents with others so that lives are enriched. Many have taken from others and spread sorrow, hate, and anger. And it still goes on -- some always giving -- some always taking.

For a short period of time you are here. You are unique in your own way. Each of us has certain talents which can help to improve the lives of others. Find these talents - foster them and be proud of your uniqueness.

It is important to all of us --- now that YOU are here.

"I am Oz, the Great and Terrible. Who are you, and why do you seek me?"

"You are rich, my friends," said Ozma, gently; "and your riches are the only riches worth having--the riches of content."

Seniors

"Ignorance lies at the bottom of all human knowledge, and the deeper we penetrate, the nearer we arrive unto it."

Jim Adams

"I walk along the darkened path with only a fleeting glimpse."

Marianna Austin

Bill Brosnan

"I try to socialize
But I can't seem to find
What I was looking for Got something on my mind."

"Who will join the mad Rush?
It may be you, but not me
If you say I'm a coward, you're right.
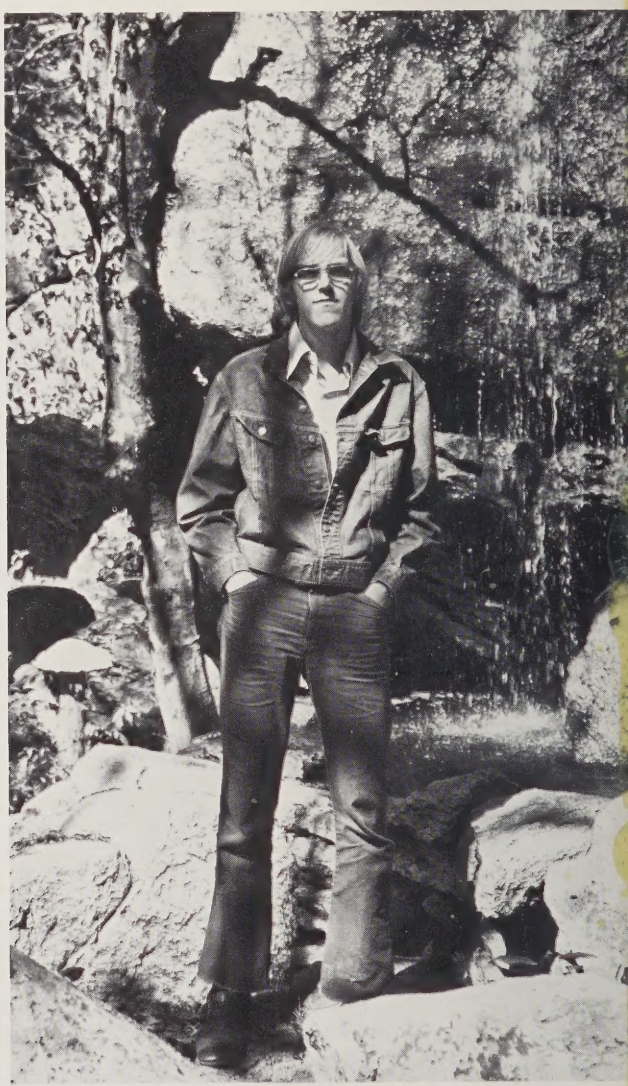
But while your hair stays neat,
Mine will be blowing with the wind."

Andy Brown

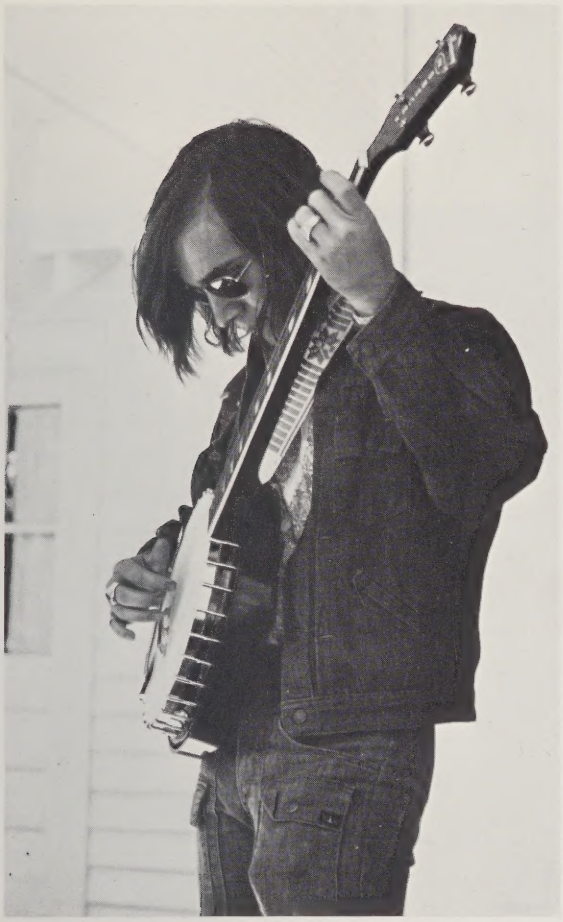
"Insist on yourself; never imitate. Your own gift you can present every moment with the cumulative force of a whole life's cultivation; but of the adopted talent of another you have only an extemporaneous half possession."

Agnes Burhoe



"He is gentle; he is kind."

David Capps



Jim Cunningham

"I'd rather look around me - compose a better song
'Cos that's the honest measure of my worth. In your pomp and all your glory, you're a poorer man than me, as you lick the boots of death born out of fear."

Joseph Foreman

"In Principio, Mulier est hominis confusio."

Greye Childress

"The art of dancing is for generous hearts that love it, and gentle spirits that have a heaven-sent incarnation for it . . . ."

Cornelia Franz

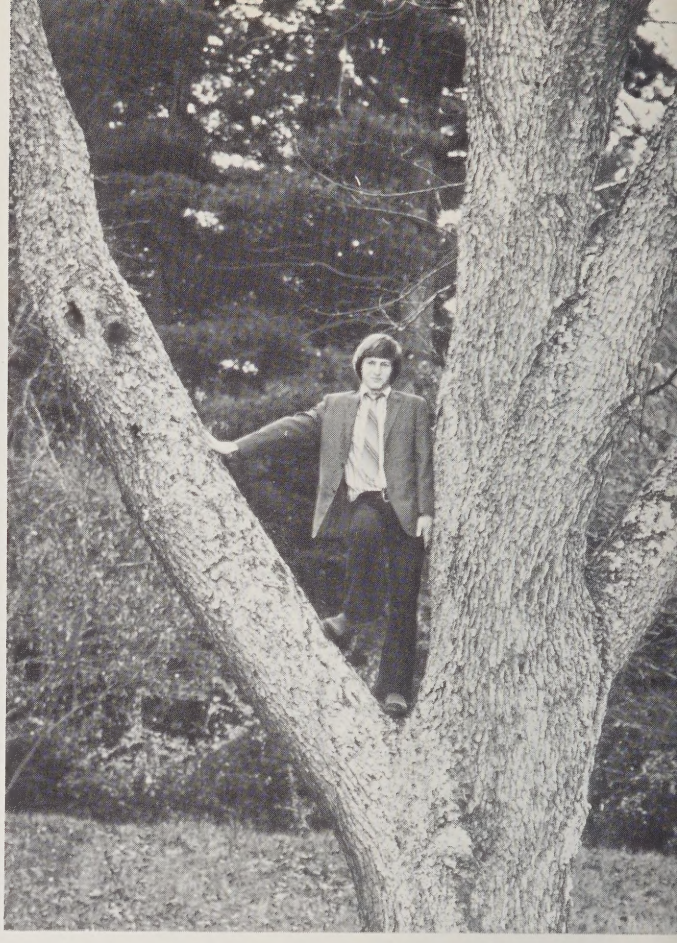
"The smile on your face is the light in the window that tell people that you are at home."

Kitty Grimsley

"A friend is someone who needs us and one whom we need. Thousands imagine their friends are numbered by scores, but if subjected to a test, many of these people would fall into the sea of common humanity."

JoLynn Hamilton

"True happiness consists not in the multitude of friends but in their worth and choice."

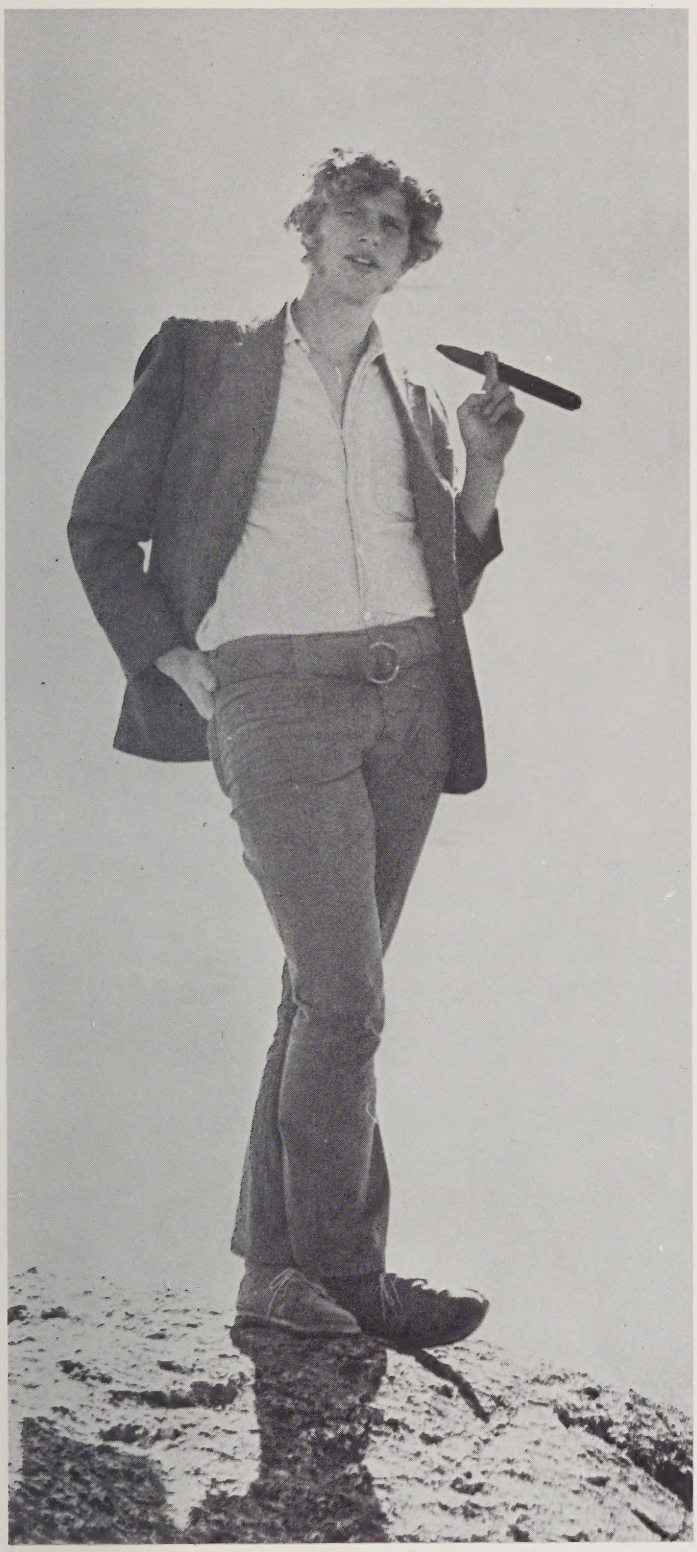


Mike Heaton

"When trouble's got you down and sorrow's all around, if you think your love's all been in vain, just cry to end the pain."

Margaret Hughes

"I would rather sit on a pumpkin and have it all to myself then be on a crowded velvet cushion."



Hunt Mallett

"One spastic explosion
Two pressure cookers go insane
It makes me act crazy
I shiver but I love this game
. . . . . School's Out."

"The line which separates the difficult from the dangerous is sometimes very shadowy, but it is not an imaginary line. It is a true line without breadth. It is often easy to pass and very hard to see. It is sometimes passed unconsciously, and the consciousness that it has been passed is felt too late. If the doubtful line is passed consciously, deliberately, one passes from doing that which is justifiable, to doing that which is unjustifiable."

John Hoskins

Tom Van Blaricom

"In every man's life there are two women.
One is a creation of his imagination;
the other is not yet born."

Bert Smith

Trent Van Blaricom

"What happened to time
It doesn't come around anymore
The last time I saw
Was a-whistlin' out the door."

"If you don't look for the bright side, what's the use in looking at all?"

Kathy Wakefield

"The schools became a scene
Of solemn farce, where Ignorance on stilts,
His cap well lin'd with logic not his own,
With parrot tongue perform'd the scholar's part,
Proceeding soon a graduated dunce."

Bryan Ward

Lee Wray

"I don't know what I'm searching for
I never have opened the door
Tomorrow might find me at last
Turning my back on the past
But time will tell, of stars that fell
A million years ago
Memories can never take you back, home, sweet home
You can never go home anymore . . ."

In practical matters the end is not mere speculative knowledge of what is to be done, but rather the doing of it. It is not enough to know about Love, or Courage, or Intelligence; we must endeavor to possess and to use these qualities to help us reach our goal.

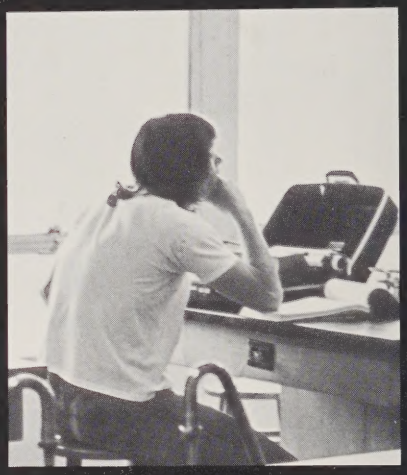
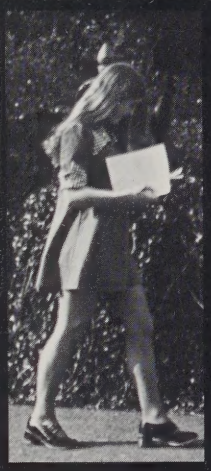
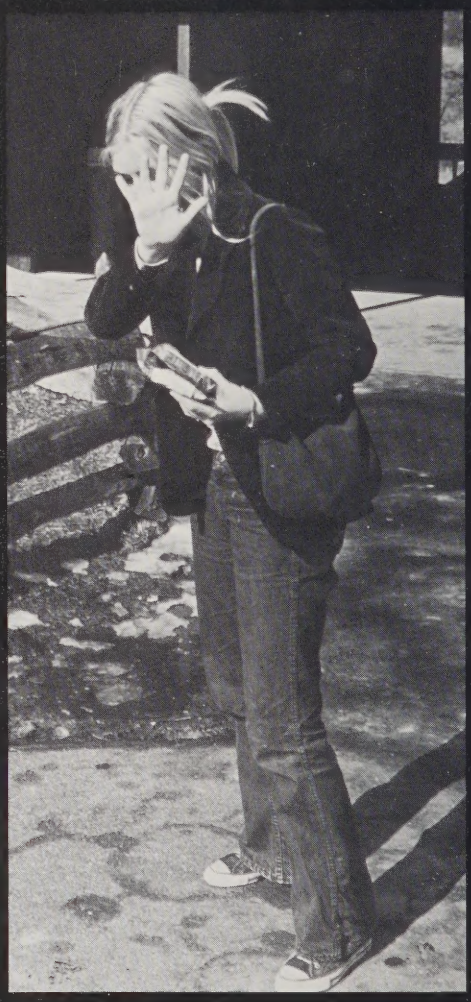
We would like to congratulate our four National Merit Semi-Finalists: Jim Cunningham, Jim Adams, Kathy Wakefield, and Lee Wray.

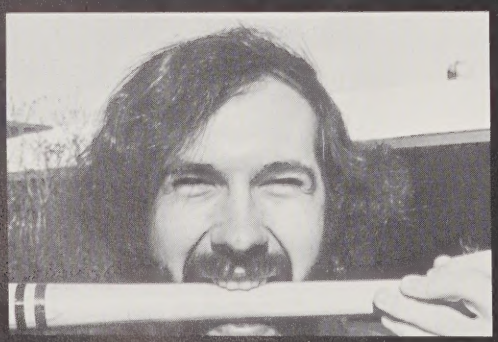
"At the same time," declared the Tin Woodman, "you must acknowledge that a good heart is a thing that brains cannot create, and that money cannot buy. Perhaps, after all, it is I who am the richest man in all the world."

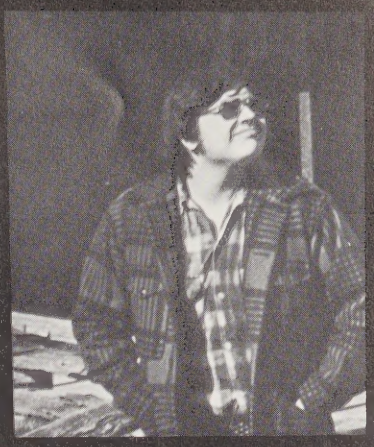
Student Life

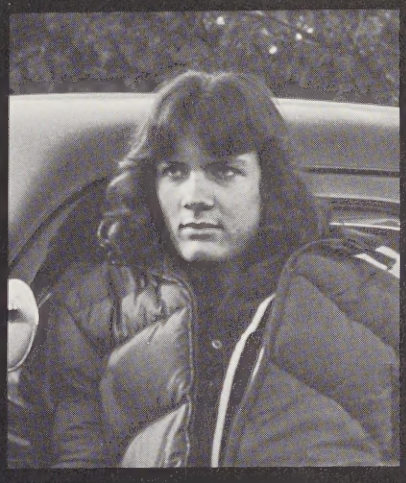




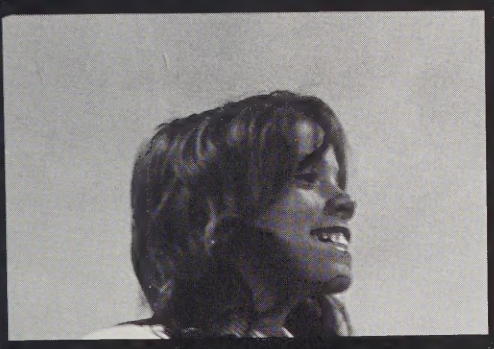


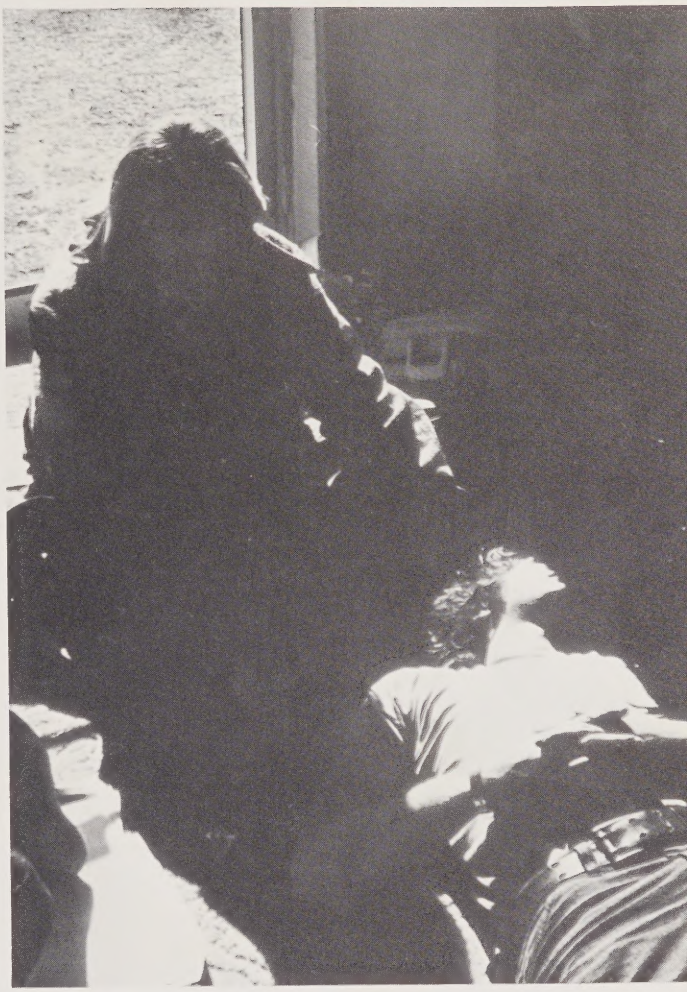






JAMAICA





We, The Senior Class of 1973, do hereby bequeath our worldly possessions:

I, Jim Adams, not being of sound mind, do hereby bequeath the following: Three Tampa Nuggets to Connie Cort; a seven foot chicken to Debbie Parker; a spot on the Tates Locke Show to Gene and Brit; a mental picture of Copper doing his thing to the tenth grade Spanish class; and to the library, to preserve for prosperity a book diligently used by Kitty Grimsley, HOW TO HAVE AND ENJOY THE GOOD LIFE WITHOUT SPENDING A CENT. Last but not least I bequeath a dime to Kathy Miller.

Marianna Austin: I leave to Opie, our tractor; to Bill, Hunt, Mike and Lee, the remembrance of our government trips; to Chuck and Brit, my sincere thanks for everything; and lastly I leave myself and my love to Peter Chakales.

Bill Brosnan: To Laura, Leslie, Debbie, Melissa and Kathy, a year's subscription to Teen Beat. To Brit a key to the Brosnan Motel. To Billy Pomeroy a car to get himself home after soccer practice. To Tommy Coleman my mind so he'll have something left in a couple of years. To Mark V. my right foot so he'll be the complete fullback. To Peter C. my ability of getting away with anything. To Gene and Don, my love of sprints. Good-bye.

Andy Brown: To Brit, Melissa and Nash I leave those long, wild trips every morning. To Billy Pomeroy I leave my ability to boogie. To Chakales I leave my mind because he's gonna need it. As a special gift, I leave a nice, fat, juicy watermelon to Coleman!! To Don and Gene I leave a night at Shoney's, I think. And to Leslie I leave something that I hope she'll never forget. And to the world I leave my insanity for saneness.

Agnes Burhoe: I leave: my greatest thanks to Linda Doerr and Anne Herbert for their work on the INSIDER, a great '74 annual staff, and good luck to next year's soccer team. Finally, I'm taking the affection I feel for Bert and leaving him my hope for his happy and successful future.

David Capps: I, David Capps, being of corroded mind and no character, do hereby leave nothing. I will simply leave.

Jim Cunningham: To Lee Wray I leave gladly, memories of countless mornings after parties. To Kathy Wray I leave my bill of $1,112.66 for transportation. To Mark Vandewart I leave a bag of peanuts and 288 copies of Flatt and Scruggs. To all I leave a memory of a departed friend, and, especially I leave to the entire Senior Class my book PLAY ACTIVITIES FOR THE RETARDED CHILD.

I, Joseph Foreman, in sound health and control of both mind and body do bequeath my sainted memory of these hallowed halls to Mr. Herbert. To Brit Smith I leave what is left of my scintillating wit to use only as Ms. Lanier sees fit. My outside shop from the baseline I leave to Gene Hamilton to pass on to whomever he wishes. My left-footed shot is to be divided among the remaining team. My orange shoe string I bequeath to the Knerr brothers so that maybe they can see their foot and so kick better.

Cornelia Franz: I leave two thermofax pens to Mrs. Robinson; the best grits in town, a beer at Eve's, a carhorn, and a lackey to M.P. and Kitty; Sylvan MacIntosh and many seaside memories to Dini; all my "I don't understands" to Miss McCabe. She can give them to anyone she likes so that she will not miss my cheerful miscomprehension. To Mrs. Lanier I leave Homer and his question, a happy face, and the hope of many more English Lit classes like ours. To my brother I leave a jeep driving course, and my French grades. To Mr. Abell, the blissful knowledge that four Franzes are gone-but....two still remain...And finally to Jimmy Adams I leave MOBY DICK, 17 dotted i's, twelve memorable years, and ...all my love. Eat your heart out, Jimmy.

I, Kitty Grimsley, being of sound mind (most of the time) do hereby bequeath the following: To Pam Dave, be it curse or be it blessing, the ability to get "mixed up" with a DJ. To my two brothers and sister, the strength and willingness to make it through 13 years at C. D. To Debra Madden the fantastic personality and sense of humor that her sister has. To Jim Adams and Joe Foreman, an unlimited number of "battles." To all Spanish students, Mrs. Griffin, who with her love, strength, and understanding has helped me immensely these past six years. To the faculty and administration, thank you....We made it!

I, JoLynn Hamilton, leave: plenty of tardy slips for my brothers; a party at Pete's for Shawn and David; some sore throat spray for next year's cheerleaders; and last, the happiest days of my life.

Mike Heaton: I leave the Spanish Club and Spook House to Chuck Pickering. To Walter Brosnan I leave a can of Colt 45. To George Chumbley I leave all my soccer ability and to Ronnie Ross I leave my ability not to get hurt in practice. To Mark (Freak) Vandewart I leave my Cheech and Chong tape and to next year's soccer team I leave my garage for parties after games.

I, John Hoskins, being of sound mind do hereby will and bequeath one yellow TR3 to David Finkle. To Pam Dave I leave one Kosher dill pickle. I will all my Monday study halls to Mr. Herbert. Finally, I leave!

Margaret Hughes: To Miss McCabe I leave my dilapidated College Barron's. To Mrs. Tanner I leave some pate de foie gras. To Mrs. Moore I will a one month vacation in Hawaii. To Mrs. Lanier I leave my old theme papers. To Mr. Stewart, my tardy slips. To Mr. Henson, an off centered pot. To JoLynn and Mike I leave a locker for them to fight over. To Cornelia, half of a French class. To Greye I leave one gallon of carrot juice. To Joe Foreman I leave some chopsticks. To Bill Price I leave a picture of himself. To David I leave memories of Algebra. To Ann Hipps I leave my senior privileges. To Julie White, a lot of material to make little hats. And to Agnes I will "Switched On Bach."

I, Hunt Mallett, hereby bequeath my lighter to Chuck Pickering, my voice and guitar to Matt Harris, my Hendersonville-Country Day run to Snooky Pupkins, and to Mark Vandewart I leave his name - Mark Tree Freak Tedro Teddy Theodore Wonderwart Vande Whoderhart Wort Vandewart.

Bert Smith: I will: to Hunt, my territory in Ro-Land; to Mike, my Russian Cossack album; to Bill, my bug collection and a pair of glasses so he can see; to Jo-Lynn, a pass for two to Shoney's curb; to Gene and Don, another night at Shoney's and my agility and ball-handling ability; to Mr. Stewart, a less interesting class, a certain part of my mind, and my TS card. To Andy, a sheep farm with a giant watermelon patch; to Bill Price, my humility; to Agnes, a pair of Wranglers, a FAKE ID, my copy of MY FAIR LADY, and a cross.

I, Tom VanBlaricom, do hereby bequeath one good morning, afternoon, evening, etc. to every varsity cheerleader and Melissa Ogden; one pint of "red stuff" to Matt Harris; my collection of Alice Cooper records and a list of next year's annual deadlines to Miss McCabe; my kitchen KUT-OUTS to Mrs. Hancock; one pregnant rat to Ms. Senterfitt; one Greek Dance to Marianna Austin and Peter Chakales.

I, Trent VanBlaricom, being of half sound mind and body bequeath to Kathy "nibbs" Adams and Debbie "neighbor" Parker my numerous study halls so they can "collect leaves." To Teddy Wonderwart I leave my Unitarian nose. To Graham Ramsey I leave my muffler for his jeep in case he wants to make some quiet exits. To Hair Woman I part with my freaky hair.

I, Kathy Wakefield, do bequeath to Bobby Grimsley thirty full cases of Sylvania light bulbs. To Mrs. Hancock I leave approximately two hundred biscuits and three gallons of butterscotch syrup. I leave the midnight oil, a can of rubber cement and an unfinished copy of the INSIDER to Mrs. Lanier and the new editors. Finally, with a lot of fond memories, I leave.

Bryan Ward: I do hereby bequeath my assets to the following: To David Skelton I leave my Harley Davidson; to Mr. Stewart I leave my Flag. My Jokes I leave to the wastebasket. My tremendous athletic feats I leave to Gene Hamilton. To Mr. Abell I leave my cigars. And to all the faculty members and my comrades in pencils, my thanks.

Lee Wray: To J. C. I leave countless parties on Reynolds Mountain, and the Ninth of Ludwig Von; to Greye, my slightly orange hands. To Hunt I leave you your amazing two-track tape player, and to JoLynn, I leave a whole buncha logic classes. To my sister Kathy I leave Aqualung. To Bill Brosnan I leave a fantastic, mind-blasting Alice Cooper halo of flies. Suffer!

"If I ever go looking for my heart's desire again, I won't look any further than my own backyard. Because if it isn't there, I never really lost it to begin with."

SOCCER SHOCKER

Highlanders End 87 Game, Ten Year Victory Streak

ASHEVILLE, NORTH CAROLINA — SEPTEMBER 27, 1972

The Highlanders of Asheville Country Day School today ended one of the country's longest soccer winning streaks, a 4 to 3 victory over Ben Lippen accomplished this feat. A large crowd of supporters watched as the fighting ACDS team built up a 3 to 1 lead and fought to a final 4 to 3 victory.

A steady rain failed to dampen the spirits of the team or supporters of the Highlanders. Tension mounted as the game proceeded, but the Blue team finished strong and won a well deserved victory.

A strong reserve of Jim Adams, Mike Heaton, Chuck Pickering, Ronnie Ross, Pete Strachota and Les Saunders amptly supported the Highlanders.

Coach Gene Hamilton, and Coach Don Scarborough expressed pride in the way the entire team played, and stated that the victory was a result of hard work and desire.

At the final hour,
there arose a red flower,
and the voice of God spoke roaring over the multitude as the great bird soared, beckoning the souls of men
into Infinity.
